Dear Friends:

This letter is sent concerning a man named John Cole who identifies with and attaches himself to Scouting in a dishonest way. In 1989 we learned that he was involved in a very small community in southern Oregon called Myrtle Creek.

I wrote a letter to Oregon Scout Executives at that time describing him and his Scouting activities as we knew them. Several years before he hung around one of our camps and passed himself off as a retired British Army officer. At that time he was living in the McKenzie Bridge area, a small community in our council. He has spent time with the Forest Service employees, and taking some small items of Forest Service equipment for himself. He has never registered in Scouting in our council that I know of.

He surfaced again to our knowledge this week ⁶⁹⁵ when one of our staff received a call, August 2, 1990, from the Black Hills Council where he has been involved in their summer camp, and just this week conducted a blessing of a cross in camp. Someone felt that something was not right in this case. I understand that council called the Registration Service to see if he was on the confidential file, and was told there was nothing in the file. I understand he did register with that council. Perhaps you have heard from them on him. He passed himself off as an Episcopal priest. The attached letter pretty well summarizes our experience with him, etc.

Please let me know if I can be helpful in any other way to help protect Boy Scout organizations from this person.

Sincerely,

Jerry Dempsey
Scout Executive

CONF007042

OREGON TRAIL COUNCIL / Boy Scouts of America
2525 Centennial Blvd. • Eugene, Oregon 97401

December 11, 1989

Dear Oregon Scout Executives,

This letter is prompted by a call from Myrtle Creek Police Department about one of Oregon's less prominent citizens named John Cole, alias Raymond W. Lawrence, sometimes W. G. Lawrence, Dr., Professor, Sir, etc.

This fellow comes close to the great imposter himself. He sometimes claims to be a retired British Army officer, an acquaintance of Baden Powell, and a great Scouter. He avoids registration, but does like to wear the uniform. His British accent is pretty convincing, but sometimes it is better than others.

Law enforcement checks show that his driver's license list Myrtle Creek as his address, however, he is not living there at this time. He has fooled Boy Scout staff, ministers, legions of volunteers, the U.S. Forest Service, and others. He has spent time, I am told, in a mental institution and enjoys stealing even when he has money to pay for something. He has a stout build, in his 60's, and is a compulsive liar. He has sometimes lived in very small rural communities.

Have a good day.

Jerry Dempsey
Scout Executive
